Dear Children's Bible partners,

I'm very pleased to bring you our updated selection of children's products.

Since we were founded in 1973, we have been guided towards our present-day motto, Bringing Good News to Kids. The "Good News" being the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

This is what motivates us to develop and produce high quality, Scripture based children's books and Bibles.

More than ever, we experience the benefits of having good long-term partners to share the mission and work with. We help each other to fulfill our God-given callings.

When you find a title that fits your needs, let's make it work together – to create value for the children we serve.

Ready at your service,

Bible Activities for Bright Minds is a new series for preschoolers that will teach kids well-known Bible stories while engaging their minds in fun games, tricky riddles, and creative coloring. Activities and games will keep children entertained while thinking about God's Word.

In either hardcover or softcover, this series with its low cost and high-quality illustrations and content provides great value to your customer.

God Fills the Earth

(Genesis 1:9-10)

God created water and land on earth and made plants to grow. He filled the oceans with fish of amazing shapes and colors. God made birds to fly. Then He made animals of every kind to live on land. Some creatures were large and some were small. Some were ugly, and some were soft.

God created all of them, big and small, and to each He gave His blessing.

The wise men followed the bright star to find Baby Jesus.

The Wise Men

(Matthew 2:1-12)

For many, three wise men also learned about Jesus. God put a special star in the sky to lead them to where Jesus was. After many months, they arrived.

They brought expensive gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. Then they worshiped Jesus. They knew He was God's own son because God had told them.

With humor and warmth, the series Sophie, Joe & Co. deals with everyday life issues as experienced by four friends.

This little series introduces children to basic values like sharing, being grateful, appreciating each other, and being loved.

Follow the four characters, Joe, Sophie, Claire, and Mike as they deal with everyday situations, play, spend time with their families and friends, and learn to do and see things in a godly way.

Books with a moral message that children can understand!

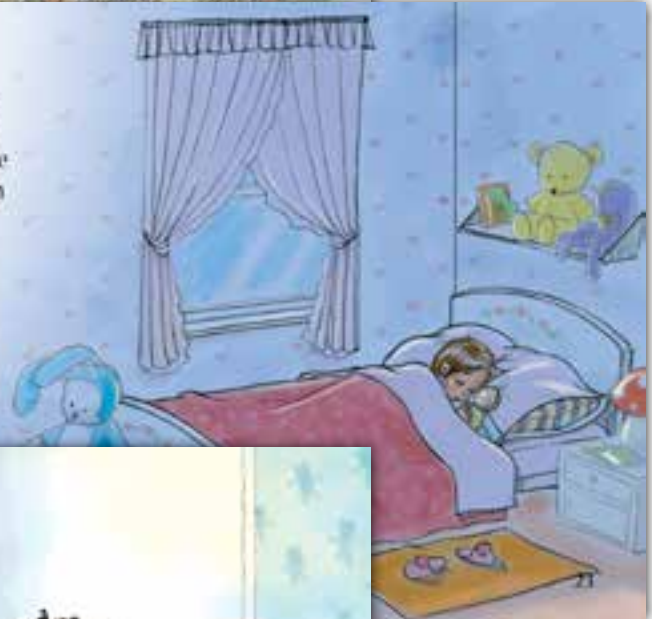

One day, whilst Sophie is playing in her grandmother's attic, she discovers a dusty old doll.

"Who are YOU?" Sophie asks the doll—who just stares back at her blankly, with her one remaining eye.

"Well you look a bit shabby, but I think I like you anyway. Come, let's shine you up," says Sophie as she cleans the doll with a cloth.

Sophie is falling asleep after a long and exciting day. She is so happy. Who would have thought she could have such fun with an old, forgotten, worn out doll.

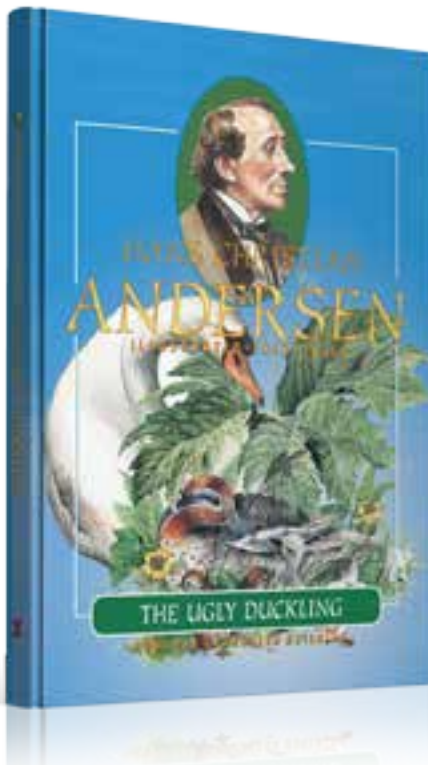

Other days, they play with cars in Joe's bedroom. "Look at my car!" says Joe. "Its wheels are so huge that it can drive up the highest mountain." "Yeah! ... and my police car is so fast, that even the fastest bad guy can't escape it!" Mike says.

Sometimes they make things like the time when they made a car out of old boxes. "Hang on Joe!" shouts Mike. "Now I'm going to push you really fast."

The kingdom of heaven
is like treasure hidden in a field.
When a man found it, he hid it again,
and then in his joy went and sold
all he had and bought that field.

Matthew 13:44

You welcomed the message
in the midst of severe suffering
with the joy given by the Holy Spirit.

1 Thessalonians 1:6

your presence and the land
was spacious, peaceful
and quiet.

1 Chronicles 12:40

So the Levites
calmed all the people,
saying, "Be quiet, for
this day is holy."

Nehemiah 8:11

You will see Zion as a place of holy festivals.
You will see Jerusalem,
a city quiet and secure.

Isaiah 56:7

We thank you, O God!
We give thanks because you are great.

Psalms 137:1

With my mouth
I will give thanks abundantly
to the Lord; and in the midst of many I will praise Him.

Psalms 137:2

He makes me lie
down in green pastures,
he leads me beside quiet waters.

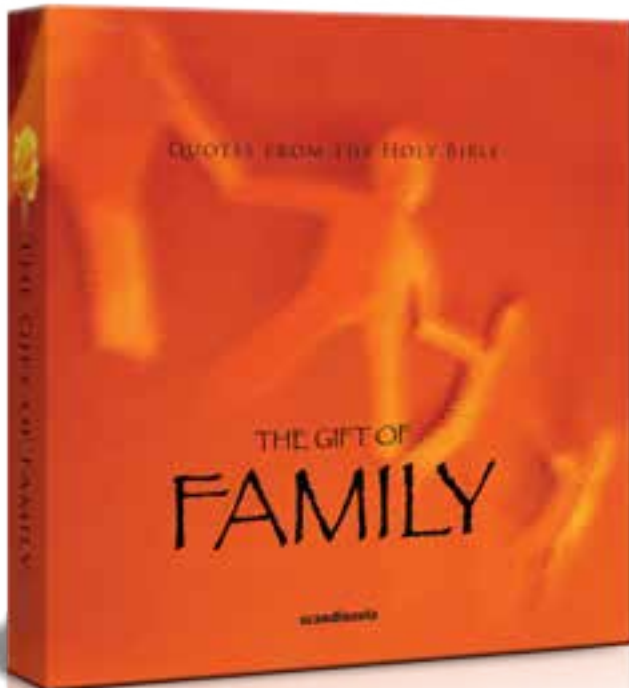

Psalms 23:2

He who has
knowledge says little;
and he who has a calm spirit
is a man of good sense.

JESUS THE SON OF MAN

Like no other painter, Carl Bloch has been able to reveal the personality of Christ in a beautiful and authentic way.

This book of colour reproductions with complementary Bible text will stir your imagination and help you understand the mind and message of Jesus.

Of the 250+ paintings and 75 etchings Carl Bloch made in his lifetime, more than 30 paintings and etchings are included in this excellent book along with the corresponding Bible text that forms the background for the illustrations.

Carl Bloch is one of the top ranked painters in the history of religious art. His sensitive portraits of Jesus have touched millions of people. His contemporary, fairytale writer, Hans Christian Andersen, wrote of him:

“When, at last we met, you were, as I perceived, like a child, yet full of manly wisdom—humble, in doubt of your strength, yet certain of your God-given calling. Otherwise it would never have been fulfilled.”

Join Lennart Möller as he reveals the amazing discoveries of the historical and Biblical Exodus!

This exciting new book supports the Biblical story of the Exodus. It reveals the discoveries of a team of scientists and researchers along the trail of Moses and the Israelites on their journey from Egypt to Canaan:

- Is the real Mount Sinai “Horeb” located in today’s Saudi Arabia?
- Where did Moses lead the people of Israel through the Red Sea?
- Where is the Altar of the Golden Calf?

These and many other questions are answered in the Exodus Case!

570 photos and illustrations support the text and point to the reliability of the Bible.

KEY FEATURES

- An in-depth study and account of present-day discoveries on Noah's Ark
- More than 150 images!
- Completely updated with the latest facts about Noah's Ark

Read the intriguing account of Henri Nissen as he takes you on a quest to find Noah's Ark!

A large wooden structure has been spotted under the ice of Mount Ararat. Does this verify the biblical account of Noah's Ark? Is the story of a Great Flood, which is found in many ancient civilizations, more than just an old myth?

This book takes you on an exciting journey to the heart of these questions and many other mysteries that have puzzled mankind for thousands of years.

The book and its content will question the foundation of the theory of Evolution and will raise confidence in the Bible as a historically reliable document, which once again has proven its credibility. It's time for the truth to be revealed.
